

BENMARCO

MALBEC

|                |                                                                                                                                                                        |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| VINTAGE        | 2011                                                                                                                                                                   |
| VARIETALS      | 95% Malbec, 5% Bonarda.                                                                                                                                                |
| REGIONS        | Malbec: AgreloAlto Agrelo, Anchoris (Luján de Cuyo)Altamira and Gultayari (Uco Valley)Bonarda: Ugarteche (Luján de Cuyo)                                   |
| ELEVATION      | Malbec: 940 m AMSL (average)Bonarda: 650 m AMSL (average)                                                                                                          |
| HARVEST METHOD | Hand-Harvested                                                                                                                                                         |
| VINIFICATION   | Hand picked, destemmed, lightly crushed.Pumping over and delestage three times a day.Max. Temp. 28° C. Cold maceration 4 days.Extended maceration 20 days. |
| ANALYTICS      | ALCOHOL 14.0%ACIDITY 5.4 g/l                                                                                                                                       |
| OAK AGEING     | 11 months in 60% new French oak barrelsand 40% second use American oak barrels.                                                                                    |

TECHNICAL SHEET

DOMINIO DEL PLATA WINERY
MENDOZA - ARGENTINA